WHEELING, W. VA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1891.

Disaster.

TWO HUNDRED PEOPLE PERISH.

Collision of an Italian Steamship With a Ship of War at Gibraltar.

THE UTOPIA GOES TO THE BOTTOM

And Only Half of Her Four Hundred Passengers are Rescued.

The Lost Were Italian Emigrants. Many Lives Saved by War Vessels in the Bay-The Utopia's Crew All Escaped-Meagre Details of the Wreck.

GIBRALTAR, March 17.-The British were drowned. A large number clinging to the rigging have been rescued by boats from the channel squadron. Intense excitement prevails on shore.

On entering the bay the Utopia before colliding with the Rodney ran into the British ironclad Anson. The Utopia British ironciad Anson. The Utopia sank within a few minutes. Boats were immediately lowered from the British ironclads and from the Swedish man-of-war Freys. The boats rescued 180 persons who are now on board the various vessels. Many others who were rescued are lodged in government buildings on shore. It is reported that that the crew of Utopia were saved, but that over two hundred passengers perished.

VINEYARD HAVEN, MASS, March 17 .-The United States steam tug Nins, ashore at Cuttibunk, will be a total losg. The wrecking agent who returned from Outthunk last evening reports the Mafia should be hung steamer fast going to pieces. Nothing The words had hard has been saved from the Galena as yet, when the three Itali steamer last governments that been saved from the Galena as yet, the weather not permitting the wrecking lighters to work alongside. The Boston Towboat Company's wrecking lighter and apparatus are harbored at Tarpaulin Cove awalting the first favorable opportunity to get to Gayhead. The chances are still considered favorable chances are still consider for floating the tug Nina.

No One to Blame States Inspectors have submitted their report of the cause of the collision of the report of the cause of the collision of the steamer Sherlock with the piers of the Chesapeake & Ohio bridge. They attributed the accident to the smoke and steam from the lowered chimneys obscuring the red lights on the bridge. Although he atopped the engines as goon as he loet sight of the lights, it was impossible to avoid the collision when the lights reappeared. Steamship News.

New York, March 17. - Arrived stea mer Eider, from Bremen. Ngw York, March 17.-The German steamer Thalis, hence for Copenhagen and Stettin, which was seen on the 14th for Europe in a fortnight for a visit of inst in latitude 46:36, longitude 71:47, resulting on account of her shaft having broken, arrived off Sandy Hook this Charge d'Affaires of the Legation.

CRICAGO, March 17.-The Congrega tional Club, composed of prominer Congregationalists of this city and ministers of that creed, after listening to speeches by Indian Commissioner Morgan, Dr. Charles Eastman, a Congregational minister and a full blooded Sloux Indian, and Miss Mary Coline, an Indian missionary, last night manimously passed a resolution condemning the War Department for allowing Buffalo Bill the privilege of carting Indian prisoners around the country to be exhibited at his show. A committee of three was appointed to convey the news of the club's action to President Harrison and request his official action in Congregationalists of this city and min-claimed that Justices Cobb and Maxwell claimed that Justices Cobb and Maxwell favor Boyd, while Norval favors Thayer's side. It is also rumored that a scheme to remove Cobb, by giving him a Federal position, has been unearthed. There is talk of prolonging the Legistature until the court orders a decision. The air is full of rumors of plots and counter plots. It is probable that Boyd will win in the end. To Decide Who is Governor HARTYDRO, UONN., March 17.—The House passed the Judson bill, providing for the settlement of the present election difficulty, this afternoon by a vote of 121 to 103.

Mangled Before Their Parents' Eyes. ROANOKE, VA., March 17 .- The westbound train on the Norfolk & Western road at nek Lula and Leilia Copperage five miles from this city, instantly killing Leilia, aged Lineteen, and injuring Lula, aged Seventeen, so that she died last agen seventeen, so that she died last evening. The girls were walking on the track and the train dashed around a sharp curve and was on them before they could escape. Their parents were walk-ing along a road near the track and wit-nessed the accident.

ly opposite Audubon Park, broke last ly opposite Audubon Fark, broke last night, causing a crevasse. The levee at that point is said to be twelve feet high. The break is now twenty-five feet wide and ten feet deep. The Texas & Pacific rallroad tracks are under water and the water is up to the crossites of the Southern Pacific road. Fat Men Flying in the Air. WHERSHARRE, PA., March 17.—While

James Pollock and son were riding in a carriage from Dallas yesterday thes were mature explosion of powder occurred at the Beadle colliery here this morning the Beadle colliery here unis morning, instantly killing Wm. Mulhearn and Richard Craddock and sectously injuring Rome Beiae and Owen Martin. Multante Beiae and Owen Martin. Multante Beiae and Oraddock were blown to admit the devenment of the sections.

His Opinion Regarding the Liability for th

WILMINGTON, DRL., March 17.—Ex-secretary of State Bayard, when asked for his opinion of the killing of four sub ects of Italians at New Orleans on Sal

"Taking the ground that there is no basis on which the Italian Government can claim indemnity, the disturbance was purely local, and there was no affront offered to representatives of the Italian Government. Neither was there the United States and those of Italy. Bad as it was all were used alike." When saked if the settlement of the

When saked if the settlement of the case of the massacre of the twenty-eight ceived by Mr. Parkerson, leader of the Chinamen at Rock Springs, September 2, 1885, attorded a precedent for claim for indemnity in this latter case, he said: "No; I think aot. The cases are not similar. It is very doubtful if the perpetrators of the WyoMing outrage were American citizens. It occurred at the letter lightly, he knows that if a hair of his were touched it would result in a were American citizens. It occurred at re American citizens. It occurred at General A. March 17.—The British steamship Utopis, from Italian ports, bound to New York with 700 Italian emigrants aboard, collided to-day with the British ironclad Rodney, anchored in Gibraltar Bay, and sank soon afterward cff Ragged Staff. A southwest gale was blowing at the time of the collision. Many women and children was alrowned. A large number clinging fortunate body of men."

mout is impartial. Further than that the United States has no liability. These outbreaks of violence are a part of the common risk to which all people are liable, and which it is impossible to prevent. There is no obligation of law, or customs, of which I am aware, that makes the United States liable for indemnity or responsible in this case."

The responsible in this case." TEALIAN LAWLESSNESS.

Case for Humbert's Consideration-All Italians Not Good Italians,

CHICAGO, March 17 .- Frank T. Hagaon this morning stood waiting for a car. Three Italians were near him. Hagadon began to talk of the New Orleans lynching and said that every member of the

The words had hardly been uttered when the three Italians draw their knives and attacked him. He was severely cut and would have been killed outright had not his cries brought several men to his assistance. The Italians escaped.

London, March 17 .- The St. Jam Gazette to-day says that it is curious to CINCINNATI, March 17.-The United find the people of Italy lamenting the d find the people of Italy lamenting the death of Mafia conspirators at New Orleans. They were wretches who had been driven out of their own country as pests of society, and that the grief of the Marquis DiRadini for the men who were lynched would not be long or very profound. If the Mafias emigrated they would have received equally short shrift from vigilantes.

The Evening Standard remarks: "If Americans believe that their judicial system is defective they should let public opinion reform it, and not resort to wholesale murder."

Italian Minister Going Ho WASHINGTON, D. D., March 17 .- Baron De Fava, the Italian Minister, will sail

Italian Minister at Washington, will not take a holiday until the New Orleans iterated bis regret at the occurrence and gave the Premier new assurances that more effective protection would in future be accorded to Italians in the

G. A. R. ANNIVERSARY nittee of To be Firtingly Celebrated April Six-A

RUTLAND, VT., March 17.-Commander-The Boyd-Thayer Contest Case.

Lincoln, Neel, March 17.—The decision in the Boyd-Thayer gubernatorial all Posts will hold on the evening of the decision and estimate of facts as they may all Posts will hold on the eyening of clation and estimate of latters as they may that day a public commemorative meeting, notice of which must be given every comrade and special invitations extended to sone of veterans, the Woman's Relief Corps and kindred organizations, also to the clergy, press, school children and citizens in general. The preparation of a programme is left to the discretion of department commanders, but from time to time as I may deem necessary of the property of the property of the commanders of the come to your knowledge.

"The sheriff will present probably durently of Saturday. When that report is filled it will be acceptable to you and in preference to that, as well as all matters requiring investigation by you, I shall give you such further instructions from time to time as I may deem necessary." Relief Corps and Rindred organizations, also to the clergy, press, school children and citizens in general. The preparation of a programme is left to the discretion of department communders, but every effort abould be made to have these services worthy the great event they signalize. FRANK I PRAYNE DEAD.

A Break is the Levee.

New Orleans, March 17.—An iron in the levee an the right bank of the river, three miles above Canal street and near-active management of the order for

THREATS OF THE MAFIA

ing had anything to do with the Mafia.

A statement is published here this evening that Scaffadi, an uncle of the To Wreak Vengance on man of that name who was slain Satur-day, was blackmailed by the Mafia about five years ago. $500 was demanded, but Leaders of the Mob.

THE MAYOR GETS A WARNING From 3.000 Italians That He Musi Die-The Grand Jury Charged to Investigate the Tragedy of Saturday-Events Yesterday. NEW ORLEANS, March 17 .- The city is quiet to-day. The Mafia warning re-ceived by Mr. Parkerson, leader of the terrible punishment of the Italians and Sicilian's. sailed them. In the settlement of the hinese case, the United States government agreed to pay the bill of $147,748,74 here of the Main, and from this some bills the Chipasa government. be no doubt, but in the Hennessey case there was not sufficient evidence to im-plicate Matranga. The grand jury is in-vestigating the charge of bribery of the jurors in the Hennessey case and it is understood they have some important fortunate body of men."

"The fact is," said Mr. Bayard, "these people are given the same prefection that is offered to American citizens. It is offered to American citizens. The courts are open to them and judg-ment is impartial. Further than that attaches to the whereabouts of Detective

THE GRAND JURY'S CHARGE. inal Court, to-day charged the grand jury as follows:

GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND JURY:
Since your last adjournment New Orleans has been the scene of a deplorable tragedy which terminated in the death of eleven persons, prisoners in the custody of the law, charged with complicity in the assassination of David C. Hennessey, late Ohief of Police of this city.

"I say a deplorable tragedy because without reference to the causes all good citizens must and do regret the taking tizens must and do regret the taking f human life without warrant of law he details and incidents of this allege are matters of public notoriety, they are liscussed in the daily press and they argely occupy the public mind at home and abroad.

and abroad.

"On Friday last the trial of a large number of persons, charged with the murder of Chief Hennessey, which has occupied the coart for some twenty five days, terminated in a verdict of not guilty as to all but three. This result was received with evident dissatisfaction by those who had watched the proceedby those who had watched the proceed-ings from day to day, and it was charged publicly that some of the jurors and wit nesses had been bribed or otherwise tampered with and influenced. A FURTHER REVIEW.

"Parsuant to a call made by many citi zens, published in the daily papers of Saturday morning, a large number of trance was effected by the lorde of the mob. Nine of the persons implicated in the killing of Hennessey were shot, and two of the three, with respect to whom there had been a mistrial, were hung, and the crowd that surrounded the prison quietly dispersed.

"Matters of such gravity cannot be invested by the courts of grand juries. I mnd the crowd that substitute the prison quietly dispersed.

"Matters of such gravity cannot be ignored by the contra or grand juries. I am compelled to as judge to bring them to your notice, and 'I feel assured that they will receive at your hands proper attention and the calm, careful investigation which they challenged. As I have heretofore charged you, the District Attorney is your legal advisor and you will, of conrae, consult with him Ireely, touching this and all such other matters as may engage your attention.

Due consideration assets.

DUE CONSIDERATION ASKED. "It is not my purpose now to do more

Shortly after the Judge had concluded

Snortly after the sudge had concluded his charge, Major Wright Schaumburg, the Mayor's Private Secretary, went before the grand jury. He was followed by W. H. Priest, Secretary of the committee of fifty, George Paneger and Chief Gaster.

A True Story of Love, Elopement and Happy Marriage.

of an amusing romance. The central

ORDERED FROM THE HOUSE.

rdered Montoney, who was boarding with them, to leave the house. But

The ceremony was to be performed at the Elder Montoney's residence. Rev.

Isanc Abernathy, a Dunkard preache be in readiness to lift the bride into her seat behind Nutter. Aggie was to start at 7:30 o'clock. At 7 o'clock everybody

He replied: "O, no, Aggie, you can't ool your papa. I'll send one of the

LIKE YOUNG LOCHINVAR

ents screaming after her. The horse vas soon over the hill and out of sight.

Nutter had been running him that after-agreed to bury the hatchet, and the region yesterday, $8,000 more is assured next week.

The Bill Defeated.
St. Louis, March 17.—The bill providing for the semi-monthly payment of mineral wages and the establishment of the time check way of paying which also

An Evening Paper Goes Under.

DULUTH, MINN., March 17 .- The Du-

A Little Discrepancy of $100,000.

The Recorder's Statue Fund.

New York, March 17.—It was announced to-day that the Recorder's Sherman statue fund amounted to $38,635.

The powders were brought. "How am I to take these, papa?"
"With sugar," he replied.
She went into the kitchen to get the day, was blackmailed by the Mafia about five years ago. $500 was demanded, but Provenzano and others advised him not to pay. The Mafia finally agreed to take $250, providing the victim would pay for the dinner that appears to follow successful robbery and precede contemplated murder. To get from under this Scaffidl agreed to the terms and went with Matranga to the swamp where two other men were. Matranga explained to them that Scaffidl was showing a disposition to do the best he could and the amount he was willing to pay should satisfy them. The masked Pretending to Take It, Gets Out pay should satisfy them. The masked men agreed to this and the party

HOW THE GIRL FOOLED HER PA

HENNESSEY'S CONNECTION With the Italians and the Crimes of the together with others afterward enjoyed the spread at the expense of Scaffidi.

New ORLEANS, March 17 .- This even ing Mr. George W. Vondevort, Hennessey's private secretary, made a statement of the history of Hennessey's connection with the Italians. He begins with the Esposito case. A price was set on the head of the bandit and Hennessey Lesposito was taken to New York and Italiaus went on to swear that they had that night with a marriage license. The known the man here for twenty years, and he could not therefore be the bandit. Among those witnesses were John Carso and Rocco Gerrati, who were killed last Saturday, beside several Italians still prominent here. The identification of Esposito was complete, and he was taken and role to Oakland. Md., a distance of Esposito was complete, and he was taken to Italy. The Italians were bent upon saving the great bandit, and the Maña chief offered Hennessey $50,000 to swear Esposito was not the man. The chief refused and was a marked man.

Esposito was not the man. Hechel refused and was a marked man.

Hennessey did not confound the Mafia and the vendetta. The vendetta was the subject of private vengeance. The Mafia was organized for robbery, blackmall, murder and revenge. Hennessey pursued the Mafia.

In Hennessey's opinion the heads of the local Mafia were Tony Matranga, Jim Carusa, Frank Romero and Rocco Gerricci. Hennessey thought Joe Macheca as member. Hennessey regarded Macheca as a bad man. Macheca was once Captain of the Innocents, a Sicilian a was with them, to leave the black. But The black-carried two loaded revolvers but decided to take his bride rather by strategem than by force. He carried his trunk, in ads of the view are Aggie's best clothes, across the steep mountain to his father's house Rouce about a mile distant on the Maryland we Massie of the river:

once Captain of the Innocents, a Sicilian political body, charged with many dark primes. Hennessey traced up Macheca's past, and when there came a break be-the fact that the Mafia met in the Italian quarter. Romero was Master-at-Arms and hung around the courts, kept track of "green" dagoes and picked out the man for assassination. Gerracci was the bull dozer of the society, and Henneasey attributed two murders to that bloodthirsty Mafian.

In the Pryenzao-Matringo feud, Hennessey was friendly to the Prevenzanos, considering them Americanized and not in the Mafia. Bad blood arose and trouble was imminent. Hennessey sent a for bette light of the prevental of the state of the in the Mafia. Bad blood arose and trouble was imminent. Hennessey sent for both sides, told them no Mafia would be allowed while he was chief; that they most live in peace; made them shake hands and take a drink, and they all left seemingly on good terms. One night the Matrengas were fired upon.

Before morning Hennessey had all the Provensano party in jail. Then the Matrangos said they did not know who did the shooting. In the evening, however, the Matrangos held a counci

the date set for the second trial. Hennessey always thought that O'Malley directed the work. Of the men mentioned Gerracci, Jim Caruso, Macheca and Romero were killed. John Caruso escaped by hiding

TELEGRAPHING SYMPATHY.

The Chicago Italian Colony Sends a Mee sage to New Orleans.

CHICAGO, March 17.—The committee of seven appointed by the Italian meetof seven appointed by the Italian meeting here on Saturday, have telegraphed to New Orleans testifying their sympathy with their colony of compatriots there and also one of adherence to the remonstrance, mass meeting in New York. Dr. Volini, chairman of the except in agricultural and domestic labor. there and also one of adnerence to the remonstrance, mass meeting in New York. Dr. Volini, chairman of the meeting, has received the following tele-gram: "It was utterly impossible for me to quell or check the furious mas-sacre. It is pretended that justice will be accorded us.
(Signed) "Corre, Italian Consul,

Aron But Mars Plant's Letter and the first war of the most of t wo Prominent Parkersburgers Saying Things About Each Other and Others. PARKERSBURG, W. VA., March 17 .-

CHARGES AND COUNTER CHARGES.

This city is considerably excited over the desperate quarrel now going on between two of its most pro sens, Edward McCreary, ex-Councilman and head bookkeeper for Thompson & Jackson, and Mr. A. B. Graham, one of Made by a Blue Book-Gladsto of the House and to Her Lovers of the House and is Married.

Bestell Discolate to the Intelligencer.

DOBLIN, W. VA., March 17.—This busy little place has just been the scene of an amusing romance. The central pany. Graham denies that he made such charges and calls McCreary some twenty-one, Mr. Ed Thompson, aged bad names.

Graham to-day prints the following Graham to-day prints the following card, addressed to the City Council:
"GINTLIMENT—Mr. Edward McDreary publicly stated in your meeting last Tuesday that I had charged bribery against members of your body in the presence of others. I take this method to publicly deny that I made any such statements as he attributes to me, that Mr. McCreary's statement is untrue and maliciously false and admittedly stated by him that he made that charge because he personally wanted the street lighting contract given to the Thomson Houston Company. eighteen, and Miss Aggie Sills, aged Last October William J. Sills, with his family, moved from the Blue Ridge Mountains to this place and at the same time came James Thompson with his family. Edward Thompson and Aggie Sills had been lovers, previous to their oming here and their courtship continued without interruption until about

McCreary also comes out in a colum

McCreary also comes out in a column print to-day stating that Graham did say that Caldwell received money for his vote in the matter.

The following sentence from McCreary's card will suprise Mr. Graham's business friends all over the State: "Thinking perhaps Graham might try to squirm out of the conversation of March 3 as his dealings of late with some of his best friends had not been very straight, etc."

The end is not yet in sight, and the courts may have to decide the matter.

courts may have to decide the matter. It is the sensation of the hour, as both men are regarded, or have been, as honorable, high-minded, truthful citizens. Caldwell wants an investigation, and Messrs R. J. Malley, Pat Burk and R. Wild have been appointed by the Coun-cil to take cognizance of the grave charges. SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Convention of All the Protestant Scho in the State in Session at Grafton. pecial Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

GRAFTON, W. VA., March 17.—Every lelegates to the West Virginia State Sunday School convention. To-night the homes of nearly all the church people in town of every denomination people in town of every denomination, except the Catholics, have visitors at their firesides to say nothing of the many who are quartered at the hotels. A goodly number of the selegates are also expected to arrive to morrow. For days past larders have been replenished, hones cleaning has been replenished. at 7:30 o'clock. At 7 o'clock everybody was ready, but Aggie's father and young Thompson were watching her. "Father," said Aggie, "I am sick. Will you please go to the doctor and get me some more powders."

He scaling! "O, no. Aggie you can't house cleaning has been, going on, and other general preparations bave been made to receive and welcome the coming

The first meeting was held at the M. E. church this evening at 7:30 o'clock, and the spacious auditorium was crowded with a fine and intelligent audience. Hon. B. F. Martin, of the Executive Committee, Grafton, presided, and Rev. Baughner, of Clarksburg, was made secretary. A magnificent chorus, composed of the combined choirs of all the Protestant churches in town, furnished the music, and after a selection of scripture had been read by Rev. C. B. Graham, the congregation was led in prayer by Rev. J. H. Flanagan,

An address of welcome then followed from Mr. William Watkins, of West Grafton, responded to by Rev. T. H. Lacey, of Weston. Mr. William Reylinds, of Illinois, the originator and or-The first meeting was held at the M. sugar, ran out at the back door and door and across the bridge and was helped into her place behind Nutter.

"Hold on tight," cried Nutter, laying whip to his horse, "and I'll put you there safe."

on, getting him limbered up and ac-ainted with the road. At 7:40 o'clock intensely interesting, fervent and to the point. The meeting then adjourned to meet in the morning for an all day's the bride entered the room where the groom was waiting and the knot was tied at once. The wedding supper was ready, and while the elder Montoney gnarded the door with a Winchester rifle the guests seated themselves at the tables. Presently the girl's angry, parents came up, but were kept at bay by Golly Montoney and the Winchester. Everything is now quiet on the Potomac. The bride's mother has since called at Golly's house, and it has been mutually agreed to bury the hatchet, and the CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 17 .-Governor Fleming began work this morning on the large pile of bills upon his desk, but made but little progress owing to a number of visitors who called during the day, which occupied the greater part of his time. He vetoed the bill authorizing Boone county to issue bonds for bridging Coal river on the Indianapolis, Ind., March 17.—A novel suit under the eight-hour law has novel suit under the eight-hour law has being the same objection to it as to the London, March 17.—Mr. Gladston been brought by John Zrisaell, in Justice Alford's court. He says that he was Governor threatens to take the bills and He was leaving the Charing Oross rail engaged by a flour and feed company conceal himself in an obscure room and road station for Hastings when an im Msy 27, 1890, to work at $1 25 a day, and lock himself in until he has disposed of mense crowd gathered at the depot to all unless he made better progress tomorrow.

A charter was issued to-day to the Columbia Guano and Phosphate Company, of Harper's Ferry, with a capital of $5,000, and the privilege of $200,000.

The stockholders are E. E. Brilly, Danville, Ill., J. W. Welsh and E. Brand, of V. Washington; Wm. C. Jones, of New York, and Benjamin F. Stern, of Harper's Ferry.

Bepublican Primaries at Huntington.

Bepublican Primaries at Huntington.

Bepublican Primaries at Huntington.

Better Despublican primary was held to
With the arm of the finishing primary was held to-

SCOTTDALE, Pa., March 17.—The sixth week of the big coke strike was inaugurated to-day, and it promises to continue for several months. A meeting of the Executive Board of Mine Workers was held here this evening, and it was unant mously decided to continue the struggle nutil next a ugust; if necessary, to win.

The wants of hungry families are to be supplied out of the defence fund, which is increasing. In addition to the $9,000 received by the local assemblies of the Street Commissioner and William Bishop for Assessor. It is regarded as a strong leaf of the real expenditure from Parliament in order to manufacture a satisfactry were intimately connected with in liberties and he protested against insidence fund, which is increasing. In addition to the $9,000
received by the local assemblies of the
for Assessor. It is regarded as a strong
for Assessor. It is regarded as a strong ated to-day, and it promises to continue and time cheefe way or paying which also had in view the extermination of "pluck me stores," was defeated in the upper house of the State Legislature last evening. The measure had passed the House and it is believed a strong effort will be made to resurrect it in the Senate. CHICAGO, ILL, March 17 .- The firs night's play in the continued pool match for the championship of the United nth Herald Company, publishers of the States, between Albert Powers, of Chicago, and S. H. Walsh, of Scranton, Pa was held last night. Score—Power 210; Walsh, 141. NEW YORK, March 17 .- The Post says luth Hersid Company, publishers of the Epyning Hersid, have made an assignment to D. H. Stevens. The paper owes between $20,000 and $30,000, of which $14,000 is secured by morigage on the plant to Miron Bunnell, the former propertor. The plant and associated pressifranchises are to be sold under this mortgage Wednesday.

FINDLAY, C., March 17.—Frank Emilinger, claiming Bradlord, Pa., as his the action of the grand jury for forging a telegram on which he obtained $12.

A Little Discrepancy of $100,990. the refusal of the Treasury to furnish gold bars for export created some doubts about the export of gold to morrow, but a slight advance in the exchange would justify the export of coin. AMPERSAND, N. Y., March 17 .- A cold

Chicago, March 17.—The usual parade Irish Amer by the Irish societies in honor of St. Patrick's day took place this afternoon. In England The weather was perfect.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Peers of the English Realm Profit by Liquor Salling.

REMARKABLE DISCLOSURES

Touches Up Parnell and Attacks the Financial Juggling-Prince Jerome Napoleon Dead.

ssued by the Government to-day discloses the fact that 152 peers of the realm are the owners of places in which ber of "drink shops" owned by these peers is 1,539. The list is headed by the Earl of Derby, who, the blue book shows, is the owner of seventy-two drinking places. Next comes the Duke of Bedford with forty-eight "drink shops" to his credit. Then come the Duke of Devonshire with forty-sever Duke of Devonshire with forty-seven, followed by the Earl of Cawdor with thirty-nine, the Duke of Rutland with thirty-seven, the Earl of Dudley with thirty-five. Included in this list is the Rt. Rev. Richard Lewis, D. D., Bishop of Llandaff, who, the blue book shows, is the owner of two places which are devoted to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

JEROME NAPOLEON DEAD.

Rome, March 17 .- Prince Napoleon i egd. The Abbe Pujo, it is announced this afternoon previous to the Prince' death administered the last sacraments of the Roman Catholic church to Prince Jerome Napoleon.

erome Napoleon.
This afternoon, after consultation with be other physicians in attendance, Dr. This afternoon, after consultation with the other physicians in attendance, Dr Bacelli informed King Humbert tha the end was near. The last agony soon followed. Prince Victor, shortly before the end, entered the room in which his father was dying, but was so overcome with emotion that he left the apartment obbing violently.

The funeral of Prince Napoleon will be conducted with religious ceremonies. The death chamber has been converted into a mortuary chapel, hung with black cloth and with black velvet. An altar as been erected against the wall on one de of the room.

side of the room.

The body will be interred in the crypt of the Royal mausoleum in Church La Superga, on Collina heights, near Turin. The Abbe Pajol in an interview said he gave the sacrament to Prince Napoleon this morning when the latter was in full possession of his faculties. He was Ready to Die gram from Pere Hyacinth, which said: Dear friend—We all pray for you, God alone is your support," Prince Napoleon remarked: "When the moment comes I shall be quite ready."

The united strength of four men is required to keep the dying Prince in his bed and his cries caused by the pain which he suffers are audible in the street.

Prince Napoleon has left his men and his entire correspondence in the hands of Mr. Frazier Masson.

One of Bonaparte's Relatives Dies

PARIS, March 17.—The Mariana Bons-parte, a grand niece of Napoleon I, died to-day at Adjaccio, Corsica. DR. WINDTHORST BURIED.

the Last Rites Performed Over the Body of the Dead Catholic Leader. BERLIN, March 17.— Thousands of Germans will attend the funeral of Dr. Windthorst, which will be held in

A solemn requiem mass for the repose of the soul of the late Dr. Windthorst, the leader of the Catholic party in Germany, was celebrated to-day at St. Heliwigs. Archbishop Kopp preached the funeral sermon. The Emperor and Empress and the military were represented at the services which were attended by many members of the Reichstag. At the conclusion of the requiem mass, the casket containing the remains of Dr. Windthorst escorted by the funeral cortege were taken to the railroad station and from there were transferred to Hanover. ferred to Hanover.

HELD IN HIGH ESTEEM.

that he remained with the company all unless he made better progress to-until March 12, 1891, during all this morrow. witness his departure. Fired by en-thusiasm the crowd broke down the try were intimately connected with its liberties and he protested sgainst insidnons attempts to undermine the power of the House of Commons to con-

Mayor, Dr. H. L. Kirkpatrick for Recorder, R. S. Lallance for Collector, J. L. Creder for Treasurer, James Puthuff for Street Commissioner and William Bishop for Assessor. It is regarded as a strong ticket and the Republicans are confident of winning with it.

He Will Be Missed from the Field.
Gaicago, March 17.—The latest state-in ment by Mike Kelly is that he has decided to quit ball playing and give his attention to his business in New York. He says his health is none too good, and that he will go to Florida in a day or two for a protracted stay.

The First Night's Play.
CHICAGO, ILL, March 17.—The first Next and the will go to Florida in a day or two for a protracted stay.

The First Night's Play.
CHICAGO, ILL, March 17.—The first heart in marked that the party now existing was the result of a long series of events and marked that the party now existing was the result of a long series of events and united efforts. It could not be disputed that the members of this party were found to link their individual opinions of the majority. That opinion had been generally used in the interest of the ampire. mpire. Before proceeding any further I should the claims of the labor candidates in England in consequence of an obligation he was under to the Liberal leaders. There is not one word of truth in this statement so far as I am concerned. [Hear, hear.] Far from opposing the claims of the labor candidates, I have always been ready to support them.]

wave prevails here. The thermometer morning at the Signal Service station. It making an inventory of his resources. [Laughter.] I hope that decision of the Irish people people will be prompt and clear, because I can conceive of nothing more injurious to the Irish cause and Imperial interests than the continuance of a condition of affairs which gives the slightest exuse for saving that it is not slightest excuse for saying that it is not yet clear what Ireland's convictions are.

Arch Bishop Walsh With the Pope. Dublin, March 17 .- Arch Bishor Talsh has arrived in Rome. His visit is made at the request of the Pope, who ops in connection with political affairs in Ireland.

Nats for Parnell to Crack LONDON, March 17 .- The Times to-day commenting on Parnell's admission that ment at the bidding of his English allies, says: "We do not know whether this makes Mr. Parnell a bigger sham or a bigger fraud than before, but it gives him a hard nut to crack." O'Connor to Oppose Parnell. or, M. P., appounces that he intends to actively oppose Parnellism by all the legitimate means in his power. Alder-man Valentine, of this city, represent-ing the Rotunda ward, will be the Parwho, at Monte Carlo, twice broke the bank recently, yesterday won $40,000, making him, he says, quits with the palace. He adds that he has hitherto

Let Them Come on to West Virginia

LIVERPOOL, March 17.—Bhergwar, the Malay sailor who murdered Captain Lyall, of the sbip Buckingham, three months ago, has been sentenced to Long Distance Telephoning

Paris, March 17.—The telephone lin between Prris and London was com-pleted to-day and the first conversation Figures Improving.

EUENOS AYRES, March 17.—The finan-ial situation in this city is improving.

One is Killed. Early yesterday forenoon a serious ac ident, resulting in the death of one man, occurred at the site of the B. & O. improvements now in progress near the old station at Benwood. Four Italian laborers were standing on a board on a high treatle, directing the earth dumped from the cars above upon the fill, when the board broke and all fell to the ground below, a distance of fifteen or twenty feet. Three of the men escaped luckily, the worst injury received by any of them being the painful wrenching and bruising of one's right arm.

The fourth man, Frank Gomezzi, was not so fortunate. He fell head first, his head striking a large timber, and his skull was cracked.

Seventeenth ward; Mrs Kupperman and the four-weeks-old baby. The others was reased by the four-weeks-old baby. The others well revealed by the four-weeks-old baby. The others was represent ward; Mrs Kupperman and the four-weeks-old baby. The others was reased by the revalled the four-weeks-old baby. The others will receive. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp, which scattered burning oil in all directions.

Werk of Iaceadiaries.

New Haarron, March 17.—The town of North Washington, eight miles north of here, was almost totally destroyed by the explosion of a lamp, which scattered burning oil in all directions.

New Haarron, March 17.—The town of North Washington, eight miles north of here, was almost totally destroyed by the explosion of a lamp, which scattered burning oil in all directions.

New Haarron, March 17.—The town of North Washington, eight miles north of here, was almost totally destroyed by the explosion of a lamp, which scattered burning oil in all directions.

New Haarron, March 17.—The town of North Washington, eight miles north of here, was almost totally destroyed by the explosion of a lamp, which scattered burning oil in all directions.

New Haarron, March 17.—The town of North Washington, eight miles north of here, was almost totally destroyed by the explosion of a lamp, which scattered burning oil in all directions.

New Haarron, March 17.—The town of North Washington, eight miles north of here, skull was cracked.

He was removed to the shanty in which he lodged, south of the station, and Dr. Haskins was summoned, but his services were in vain. Gomazzi's inaries were so severe that he died ab His fellow workmem will bury

Frank Swariz, a stone mason, was adly hurt while at work at Falton yes-

Frank Swarts, a scone mason, was badly hurt while at work at Fallon yesterday, a huge stone falling upon his leg, crushing it badly.

Michael Beau, a tinner, fell from a scaffold on South Front street, Island, yesterday, and in jured his back severely.

Yesterday forencon Arthur Honecker, aged eight, stooped under a wagon at the Eighth ward school house to get a card, when the wagon started, the wheel striking the boy in the face, cutting and bruising his head and face badly. Dr. Stathers attended to his injuries.

William Johnson, while at work at the new Lamp and Stamping Works on South Water street, caught his finger in the pressand part of it was cut off.

Mrs. Medick, an aged lady living on South Chapline street, fell on Market street and broke her arm.

At Clerk Hock'ts Office.

$1,500, for lot 7 in square 30 in South Wheeling.

Alice, William and Charles Sloan, the of united labor April 5, for the purpose of formally protesting against the vertheir mother being in jail, were yesterday formally committed to the Home.

H. O. Sawtell was appointed guardian to John R. Sawtell, and zave bond in the state of the Pittsburgh jury.

Klifed His. Owe Son.

CLARKSYILLE, ARK., March 17.—A ter-surety.

James C. Manabarger qualified as ad plans by Architect M. F. Giesey. Rinehart & Tatum have sold a lot to Six Degrees Below Zero,

PREMAND, N. Y., March 17.—A cold prevails here. The thermometer ared six degrees below zero this aga the Signal Service station. It

Good Weather in Chicago.

CAGO, March 17.—The usual parade

I Irish Americans that he now has the Hear, hear.] Far from opposing the claims of the labor candidates, I have always been ready to support them.

[Cheera.]

Regarding the American manifesto,
Mr. M. Monneborn, the clothing man who will open a store in the stand lately occupied by Conner & Snedeker, corner for fourteenth and Market streets, arrived in the city yesterday from New York, where he has been purchasing his sources of strength which he does not possess. I was struck by one omission. Mr. Parnell forgot to inform the I Irish accieties in honor of the labor candidates, I have always been ready to support them.

Mr. M. Sonneborn, the clothing man who will open a store in the stand lately occupied by Conner & Snedeker, corner for Fourteenth and Market streets, arrived in the city yesterday from New York, where he has been purchasing his
to repair the building, and expects to color for the labor candidates, I have always been ready to support them.

Mr. M. Sonneborn, the clothing man who will open a store in the stand lately occupied by Conner & Snedeker, corner for Fourteenth and Market streets, arrived in the city yesterday from New York, where he has been purchasing his
to repair the building, and expects to color for our tenth and Market streets arrived in the city yesterday from New York, where he has been purchasing his
to repair the building, and expects to color counter
American manifesto, megarding the Ame

One of the Largest Fires in the History of New York. BENJAMIN'S CLOTHING HOUSE and Several Other Business Places Go Up in Smoke---The Loss o Goods Alone Over Two Million Dollars in a Short Time.

to one knows how, in the sub-basemen of the nine story mansard roofed brick he opposed labor candidates for Parlia- and iron building, on the southeast corner of Bleecker and Greene streets, about speading east of it destroyed them as well and another in the rear that ran from Greene to Mercer streets. It will be classed among the largest fires ever known in this city. Over $2,000,000 known in this city. Over $2,000,000 ctively oppose Parnellism by all the egitimate means in his power. Aldernan Valentine, of this city, representing the Rotunda ward, will be the Parcell contestant.

Time for Him to Quit.

Time for Him to Quit.

Time for Him to Quit.

Monaco, March 17.—The Eoglishman who, at Monte Carlo, twice broke the healing. He adds that he has hithertosen a loser and agcuses the bank of heating.

be no danger of its spreading further. The losses roughly estimated are as fol-

$100,000 on building and $250,000 on their stock.

M. H. Rosenstein, building $25,000, stock $55,000.

E. V. Oonnell & Co., hatters, $75,000. In the rear building, owned by Dr. Macy, valued at $150,000, Sylvester Levacher & Co., hatters, lose $150,000.

M. V. Schwartz and other tenants in in the rear building loses estimated at $150,000.

RONDOUT, N. Y., March 17.—The most destructive configgration that has ever visited Southern Ulster occurred at

Highland last night, destroying property valued at nearly $45,000 and reducing the business centre of the village t Four Italian Laborers Get a Hard Fall and Two Deaths from a Pittsburgh Fire PITTSBURGH, March 17 .- Two deaths will result from last night's fire in the

PROTEST AGAINST THE VERDICT.

Chicago Unionists Deprecate the Proposed Hanging of Condemned Pittaburghers. CHICAGO, March 17 .- The verdict of capital punishment given by a Pitte-

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record three deeds of trust and a deed made March 17, by James Moore to Jaspar Horner, in consideration of st. 500, for lot 7 in square 30 in South

rible tragedy occurred near Hartman, nineteen miles above this city, yester its in the straight of the plane. It was won by Charles Newman, who was presented with a handsome book. Refreshments were served as the process of the plane. It was won by Charles Newman, who was presented with a handsome cannot be presented as a connot be presented to the presented to his becomes and on his return his son a connot day, which resulted in Harris Gilbert killing his son. Gilbert and a negro were engaged in a game of cards, over resented with pretty boutonnieres. Taken all in all, it was a very novel and enjoyable entertainment, the order of exercises being music on all sorts of instruments.

The White Rose Social danced with friends at the Mænnerchor hall last night to Prof. Kilmyer's music,

A Handsome Block of Residences.

Mr. S. J. Boyd, who purchased the site of the old elebtrical plant, on the corner of Chapline and Twenty-second streets, will this spring erest on it five handsome medern residences. The site is eligible and this will be a marked improvement to that part of town.

Mr. Jack Glasscock will shortly build a bandsome residence on the comper of Maryland and North Front streets, after plans by Architect M. F. Glessey.

Rinebart & Takum have seld sclotted. the verdiet found. He said as yet he had received no official notice of the poison in their food, Canned beef which they had for dinner was given to a dog, but it failed to have any bad effect on him. Portions of all the selbles which comprised the dinner were fest to animals, but with no regult. They are all suffering, but the doctors cannot deter-

He ought to have specified that when

April.

April.

April.

April.

Banks for pure Rye and Bourbon in Eggland,"

Whisky promity filled at Lally's, 2100

Whisky promity filled at Lally's, 2100

The seventh entartinment in the Monday. Seats on sale Friday morning.

OTTAWA, ILL, March 17 .- The case of Patrick O'Sullivan, sentenced to the peniteutlary for life for the murder of Dr. Cronin in Chicago, came up in the